After going into space and stealing from Macho Gomez Macho gets everyone that Deadpool has wronged together to get payback. Next he decides in order to die he will get The Incredible Hulk to smash him beyond repair. However making the Hulk that angry is not a good idea. Even trying to get himself killed and fighting so-called friends he has humor in him. There are A LOT of people from his past in this story.

this volume is all about one thing, deadpool wants to die. but how? as you probably guessed from the cover it involves the only marvel character more indestructible than himself and it is hilarious! considering that this is a story of someone trying to get someone else to kill him it's insanely light-hearted and is probably one of the best examples of deadpool being deadpool. I highly recommend it.

The first part of the story is kind of boring and doesn't really add to the story only to awkwardly set up the second half of the story. When we get to the main story it improves dramatically feeling very much like a deadpool adventure with plenty of comedy and ridiculousness we have all come to love, but it do's get a little awkward at the end. Pick up if a deadpool fan, if not you wouldn't be reading this Volume 8 delves more into Deadpool's mind (as scary as that sounds) and reveals a side of his character that is not usually shown. It's still a hilarious, action-packed issue with all the usual Deadpool one-liners and Marvel character cameos. Definitely worth a read.

If you love deadpool then I highly recommend that you read this graphic novel. I don't want to give away the plot but it involves the hulk and it's awesome!
