Stranded Batsman: The Story Of Caribbean Cricket Legend Jim Allen

Synopsis

A mysterious illness almost claimed his life as an infant. He lost his father at 13. His best friend and teammate was murdered hours before an international match. Jim Allen, the country boy from the tiny island of Montserrat, played alongside cricket giants Viv Richards, Andy Roberts and Clive Lloyd. But he never achieved his ultimate dream of playing in a Test match for the vaunted West Indies team. After an eye injury stalled his career, he was denied the coveted role of coaching his national team. Instead, he was hired as a guard at Her Majesty's Prison. Consumed by anger and bitterness, Jim descended into self-loathing and neglect. A story of Jim Allen's hard hits and hard times.

Didn't regret buying this book ..great read

I am an avid lover of West Indies cricket and its past heroes. This was a very well written and informative autobiography of one of its heroes. I read it in one sitting. Great Book!

Good read. I am not a big cricket fan but this makes me want to watch more and learn about the players. Would definitely recommend.

Page turner from start to finish.. a haunting account of the life and times of Jim Allen one of the most exciting Cricket players ever.
