I won this book from the author. I absolutely loved this book. I had a hard time putting it down. The story has everything - romance, suspense, drama. I can't wait to read her other books. World War II from the German family perspective. I enjoyed the character of Lotte and thought she was a very typical and relatable teenager. I loved watching her grow and learn from her mistakes. I recommend this to anyone who enjoys historical fiction.

I just finished this book, the second one in a series. Found this to be every bit as good as the first one!! Marions books are very well written with true to life stories. The characters are endearing, the plot fast paced and the suspense edge-of-your-seat. This is definitely a MUST READ!!!! Thank You also for making your books available through KINDLE UNLIMITED-So that us on a tight budget are able to experience your GREAT GIFT!!!!

This book, the second of the series, was over way too soon, but nothing was missing in the story. It was exciting from start to finish, and it left me looking forward to the next book. It's always a good sign when you finish something wanting more.

Lotte, young, headstrong, believed in doing what's right and helping the helpless was right. Sometimes, doing what's right can have the wrong consequence.

Story of a sister saved from the horrors of a German concentration camp by the actions of her two loving sisters.
