Vatican City Travel Guide: Sightseeing, Hotel, Restaurant & Shopping Highlights

Synopsis

Covering an area of only 110 acres adjacent to Rome, Vatican City is the smallest country in the world. It is known for being the residence of the Pope, the Bishop of Rome and the global head of the Catholic Church. This city-state is a walled enclave completely surrounded by the city of Rome. Only 842 people reside in the Vatican but it attracts over 5.5 million visitors every year given its historic, religious, and architectural significance. The Vatican not only appeals to Catholics across the world but to travelers from all backgrounds making it one of the most popular tourist destinations in the world. It is the only country in the world which is itself a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
