Collier's collage illustrations created with fabric and paint are expansive, sweeping completely over the spreads. Images are subtle yet evocative. (School Library Journal)

Written by James Weldon Johnson in 1900 to celebrate Abraham Lincoln's birthday, the song LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING has become an anthem for African Americans in the struggle for equality. Bryan Collier's vibrant, stunning artwork offers an inspirational and rousing interpretation of this powerful song that continues to influence and shape new generations of children today.

all the yrs gone by, I didn't know this song--anthem-- had God @ its core. "...Let our rejoicing rise / High as the listening skies..." "...God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, thou who hast brought us thus far on the way; thou who hast by thy might led us into the light, keep us forever in the path, we pray. Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met thee; lest our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget thee,shadowed beneath thy hand,may we forever stand,true to our God,true to our native land."

Exactly what I wanted!

My students love the book.

This book was introduced to me in college and I had to add it to my book collection. It is important to have a range of books in your classroom library.

The book was just what we needed as our choir director is working with the children of the church. She was so thrilled when I gave it to her as she said she would be able to present the music in a way that they will be able to learn.

Very Good
