Paul Bottomer and his wife and partner, Elaine, are world-renowned dance champions. They have been the World & European Supreme Champions in Argentine Tango four times and were grand finalists in the All-England Professional Ballroom Championships. Paul teaches and lectures internationally, appears on various television programs and at social dance conferences.

Covers every dance with step guides. Easy to follow. Wonderful big hard cover book.

Just as advertised.

Good for basics.

Book was a little worn when I got it and the content is very basic and hard to understand. I'm a ballroom dancer and had difficulty understanding the instructions! Wouldn't recommend buying it.

ok

The book provides a detailed overview of ballroom dancing. However, it was missing graphic (i.e. line of dance, wall, etc.) that leads at the ballroom floor in relationship to the dance. It would have been very helpful to beginning dancers.

I liked the book well layed out, should prove interesting.

Good basic information for the beginner.
