â œOnly then art will be found in the place where it can express the maximum of its value: everywhere.â • -- Michele Trimarchi

In its first four editions OUTDOOR, International Festival of Urban Art took place in the Roman industrial area of Ostiense â “ Garbatella â “ San Paolo, created in the 1870s. Since the â ^60s this industrial district has left space for a new dimension, strongly influenced by its past. The industrial activity can be perceived through its buildings, which today instead host the city's core creative and cultural scene. Through Urban Art performances, OUTDOOR's aim has been to communicate this contemporary phase of social and urban changes to future generations.
