Chicken Soup For The Soul: My Kind (of) America: 101 Stories About The True Spirit Of Our Country

Synopsis

More than ever, Americans are refocusing on what we are known for: kindness, tolerance and compassion. This is not a book about politics. This is a book about people â” one at a time â” doing what we do best.Â These 101 stories proudly serve as testimony that America isÂ stillÂ a country filled with good people who volunteer in our communities, help people who need help, and pride ourselves on doing the right thing. Our huge and varied country is known for tolerance, energy, and spirit. We are proud of our inclusive and welcoming attitude, no matter our color, our country of origin, our sexual identity, or our religion. This is a book about hope and the true American spirit. It reminds us that a kind America is everyoneâ™s kind of America.

Customer Reviews

Despite the fact that I have a short piece in this edition, the best thing about My Kind (of) America is that it captures the wonderful ways friends, neighbors and strangers have found to help, appreciate, support and nurture one another. This is a completely upbeat book about cooperation, collaboration and care - so necessary today in the context of our challenges at home and abroad. I recommend this edition as a pick-me-up, a happy place, as comfort food for thought and as a salve for the soul. The super short stories are poignant, personal, purposeful, even playful. I hope it warms your heart and that you enjoy it as I did.

At a time when we are inundated daily with unkind behavior from all media venues, this book is a refreshing reminder that kindness is also around every corner in America. From big acts to small ones, these stories illuminate the best of human nature and help renew faith in the goodness that resides in us all.
