Georgia O'keeffe 2018 Wall Calendar

Synopsis

The first female American painter to gain worldwide respect from both critics and the general public, Georgia O Keeffe created images of powerful simplicity that invite viewers to see the familiar in a new way whether it be the delicate petals of a flower enlarged to fill a whole canvas or the vast desert landscapes of her beloved New Mexico reduced to a few intimate details. The twelve paintings reproduced in this calendar capture the many nuances of the artist's talent and her unforgettable style. Printed on FSC-certified paper with soy-based inks. Twelve monthly grids and full-color artwork. Click on the small picture to see the back cover. Size: 12 x 13 in.; opens to 12 x 26 in.

I was excited about this cuz the cover was so pretty but there are only 3 beautiful cards out of 30!!! My favorites are the trumpet flower and orchid. There's a handful of OK flowers but landscapes and NM paintings are unattractive. I definitely would look elsewhere ... even if you're a die-hard Georgia O'Keeffe fan. It's better to buy singles at museum gift shops cuz you know exactly what you're getting. Glossy address side and over-sized so you'll need first class stamp.

I have wanted to purchase this book since visiting Georgia's Abiquiu home and studio. The book was exactly as described - in very good condition. There is a very small tear in the dust jacket, but otherwise it is in perfect condition. I know it is out of print so I was so glad to find it on . I wanted this book because it is written by Georgia herself and she wanted to tell her stories about her art and not leave it to others' speculations. I have already started reading it and will enjoy having this book in my library for years to come,

Really stunning collection of Georgia O'Keeffe's flowers and other works in postcard form. I bought these to mail out to my students when we study Georgia but they are so gorgeous that I want to keep them all and hang them up! I will probably have to buy another set!

Very nice. I was a bit disappointed in the painting choices, but overall, it's a nice set.

The value of this book consists of 2 things: 1) beautiful images of Okeefe paintings and 2) Her comments about the paintings allow you to see what she was thinking and feeling as she painted. I found this great to read while also reading a biography of Keefe

Wonderful book...with great reproductions and info .

I have become a fan of Georgia O'Keeffe and her wonderful paintings and drawings. This book of some of her works plus her comments is invaluable in getting to really know her as a person. This book is out of print so I felt especially lucky to have found a used version on . Many of her famous paintings are included. I believe that reading O'Keeffe's own writing along with some of her biographies really provides insight into her personality and art work.

This book is in great condition, especially for a paperback. It's just what I wanted and expected!
