A Concise Public Speaking Handbook (5th Edition)

Synopsis

For courses in Public Speaking An audience-centered approach to public speaking in a concise reference format A Concise Public Speaking Handbook emphasizes the importance of analyzing and considering the audience at every point in the speech-making process. Using a concise reference format that facilitates quick and easy access to key information, authors Steven and Susan Beebe present a balance of theory and practice to guide students on how to enhance their public speaking skills. By focusing student attention on the dynamics of diverse audiences, ethics, and communication apprehension, the text narrows the gap between the classroom and the real world. The Fifth Edition includes fresh examples throughout to ensure that content is relatable and engaging for students. A Concise Public Speaking Handbook, Fifth Edition is also available via Revel™, an interactive learning environment that enables students to read, practice, and study in one continuous experience.

Steven A. Beebe is Regentsâ™ and University Distinguished Professor in the Department of Communication Studies at Texas State University. He served as Chair of his department at Texas State for twenty-eight years and concurrently as Associate Dean for twenty-five years. Steve is the author or co-author of twelve widely used communication books, most of which have been through multiple editions (including Russian and Chinese editions), as well as numerous articles, book chapters, and conference presentations. He has been a Visiting Scholar at both Oxford University and Cambridge University in England. He made international headlines when conducting research at Oxford; he discovered a manuscript that was the partial opening chapter of a book that was to be co-authored with J. R. R. Tolkien and C. S. Lewis called Language and Human Nature. Steve has traveled widely in Europe and Asia, and has played a leadership role in establishing new communication curricula in Russian universities. He has received his universityâ™s highest awards for research and twice for service, has been recognized as Honors Professor of the year, and was named Outstanding Communication Professor by the National Speakerâ™s Association. In 2013 he served as President of the National Communication Association, the largest professional communication association in the world. His passions include his family and a lifelong love of music; he is a pianist and organist and a struggling cellist. Susan J. Beebe's professional interests and expertise encompass both oral and written communication. Sue has co-authored three books and has published a number of articles and teaching materials in both English and communication studies. She has received the Texas State University Presidential Awards for Excellence in Teaching and in Service and the College of Liberal Arts Awards for Excellence in Scholarly/Creative Activities, in Teaching, and in Service. After serving as Director of Lower-Division Studies in English for eleven years, Sue retired in 2014 from the Department of English at Texas State. An active volunteer in the community of San Marcos, Texas, Sue was the founding coordinator of the San Marcos Volunteers in Public Schools Program and has served on the San Marcos School Board and the Education Foundation Board. In 1993 she was named the statewide Friend of Education by the Texas Classroom Teachers' Association; in 2000 the San Marcos school district presented her with its Lifetime Achievement Award. Sue enjoys reading, traveling, and caring for the Beebe family cats, Luke and Bouncer. Sue and Steve have two sons: Mark, a graduate of Rice University; and Matt, a graduate of Southwestern University and a middle school teacher in nearby Austin.

This book worked great for the class i am taking online. It was less than half the price of the actual book and when opened i could search for key words and be taken there in an instant instead of flipping through a book. I saw alot of reviewers stating something about not getting to see graphs but i had no such problems. Everything that was on my quizzes for the class were easy to find in the book.

This book is fabulous ! After ordering this for my daughter's college class, she began speaking like an authoritative politician :-). Seriously, it was a great book for an A for my fabulous daughter's college class. She now "public speaks" around the house and "learns me". Joking aside, great book. I didn't have to read it, I saw the results in action !

Buying the Kindle version, I now have access to it on my MacBook Pro, iPad, and iPhone. Simple using the highlight features, note taking, and whatever else you could use it for. Stored in my iCloud so I can access it everywhere. $41.75 well spent, and not have to worry about the paper ripping or having to carry around another paperweight.

I rented this book for my last quarter, I decided I did not want to be bothered with buying a book

when I was not going to be needing it for future use. The order came very quick, and I was pleased with the delivery process. I do not have any problems with the book's content, my only concern with it is that it is spiral bound and the pages are rather thin so you need to be careful with it especially if it is a rental or if it is something you purchased and plan on keeping or re-selling

I bought this book at because it is about $10 cheaper than the university bookstore !! It is required for us to get this book for one of the classes at the university. So far I think is a good book for the people who wants to be perfect at presenting or those who have issues while presenting and want to solve them.

Used for a COM class at CGCC, worked great! And definitely better than spending the money buying new. Very easy read.

What. I had to get this for my speech class but it was missing a ton of chapters so I had nothing to read for half the semester. I can't even give it to another student because this isn't the complete 4th edition so I threw it in the garbage.

Everything you need for basic essentials on public speaking. It helps you get better not just as a public speaker but as a communicator because it points out small things you can read and identify when your communicating to help you be better at it.
