Move Your Bus: An Extraordinary New Approach To Accelerating Success In Work And Life

Synopsis

New York Times best-selling author and award-winning educator Ron Clark applies his successful leadership principles to the business world in this effective and accessible guidebook, perfect for any manager looking to inspire and motivate his or her team. Teamwork is crucial to the success of any business, and as acclaimed author and speaker Ron Clark illustrates, the members of any team are the key to unlocking success. Imagine a company as a bus filled with people who either help or hinder a team's ability to move it forward: drivers (who steer the organization), runners (who consistently go above and beyond for the good of the organization), joggers (who do their jobs without pushing themselves), walkers (who are just getting pulled along), and riders (who hinder success and drag the team down). It's the team leader's job to recognize how members fall into these categories, encourage them to keep the "bus" moving by working together, and know when it's time to kick the riders off. In the tradition of Who Moved My Cheese? and Fish!, Move Your Bus is an accessible and uplifting business parable that illustrates Clark's expert strategies to maximize the performance of each member of a team. These easy to implement techniques will inspire employees and team leaders alike to work harder and smarter and drive the organization to succeed.

This audiobook is wonderful! The CDs, however, do not play well in my vehicle's CD player. When I inserted the first CD, it was not recognized; then it would not eject after numerous attempts. I gave up and started driving and listening to the radio. Suddenly the disc began to play. Once it got to the end, I was able to eject it. Thinking it was a fluke, I tried the second disc--I was eager to continue. It too, was not recognized. I was able to eject it, however. I'm disappointed. I really wanted to listen during my frequent road trips. I will attempt to convert it to another format because Ron Clark has terrific information to share.

My daughter LOVES this book and she hates to read. She is 17 yo but is very much a "get off your butt and quit whining" kinda of girl. So this is right up her ally. She rolls her eyes at "every one deserves a trophy, even though your the absolute worst team of the league" kind of girl. 1st place trophies are for 1st place teams kind of kid. She dreads college because of the whiney babies she will have to deal with.

This is an extraordinary book that will transform your perspective to lead your team (your bus) to perform at heights you could never imagine. This books is filled with lessons accompanied with stories for additional context that beautifully exemplify how Ron Clark moves his bus (Ron Clark Academy) with his team to achieve all they do, which sounds like a school every kid would dream of attending if they could.

Overall Ron introduced some interesting and new concepts with the Bus analogy and the riders. Certainly applicable for business owners and for characterising and motivating employees. The book was a little self serving with Ron heavily promoting himself and his special school.

Concept was very clear!! Have read his other books but this one has to be the best!!

I LOVE Ron Clark and this book! Amazing read for any educator or business person!

Quick read and interesting approach to leading others in a work, church, or volunteer setting. This approach is unique and builds on the reader's current skills and capabilities to move people forward at there natural pace - thus moving the bus - everyone is moved along. Like I said it is a unique approach to tem building. Work improvement is constant - not a new concept - at a natural pace. Before retiring I taught team building for 17 to 20 years.....

This book came at a time where I needed to restart my engine. I can only hope one day that I can be the best me I can be for not only myself but my classroom students. I enjoy seeing them excited about learning and feel that this book will get me back on track for making learning a fun and exciting experience for all kids who enter my room!!!
