Synopsis

Trenton Carpenter is all grown up. Now a firefighter with some of the other guys we know and love from this series; he's spent the last several years, growing up and getting to know his brother. Unlucky in love and not wanting to settle for less than his ideal life that he wants, he's choosy about who he lets close. That is, until he meets sexy police officer Kade Morgan. Kade Morgan is a closeted, sexy as sin, police officer that keeps his cards close to his chest. Nobody knows much about the man except for his bad attitude and permanent scowl. They'd never guess that he's a protective big brother and ....a single parent. Seeing how all these guys know everybody in town, it was only a matter of time before they met. Alvin introduced the brood to Kade and his sister Callie and after a night of drinking together; they were brought into the fold. Kade has a hard time staying away from Trenton and Trenton doesn't want to stay away from Kade, or his sweet, little girl who wrapped him around her little finger the day they'd met. An accident at work, a bloody mess and a heated kiss or two between these two hot guys make it impossible for them to deny what's right in front of them. Will a department change and the risk of losing Trenton be enough to snap Kade out of his tightly closed closet, or did Trenton make a mistake and pick another wrong guy? This story is m/m romance with no cliffhanger and a HEA. Mature language and situations.

Customer Reviews

Here we have the Unlikely Heroes book #6, and it's terrific ! Trenton, 21, a good looking rookie firefighter, with dirty blonde hair and hazel eyes, is a hard worker. He sees his newly found brother and his partner, plus all of their group, living openly and have that special bond that he wants with his "one" someday. We get his back story of family, coming out, and a heartless ex. Kade, 29, is a hunky cop, dark hair and eyes, with his sweet daughter, 22 month old, Emmi. His best friend Sara died from cancer so he and his daughter and sister, Callie, do pretty well together. The men see each other a few times, and once again at a BBQ with friends. Then - at a fire scene of a Meth Lab, the freaked out Meth guy slashes Trenton's arm with a broken bottle. Kade remains at his side, and after shots, stitches, meds, and sleep, Trenton opens his eyes. He then ends up at Kade's, becoming Emmi's favorite person, Boo-boo ! Of course, then Kade makes a dumb move, and soon must make up for it. Kade is in the closet, wanting desperately to be out, but on the police force there are stories of homophobes not helping out their partners. He has to think of Emmi and Callie. But also, he can't stop thinking of Trenton. They begin hanging out more, with long talks, family time, and super hot sexy times. This "family" of men are amazing, and we get to feel close to all of them. Jenny Woods characters weave their way into our hearts. Simply fabulous tales of special people who deserve good times, amidst the sometimes cruel world. These series stories can stand alone. I like that I know all of the guys on a deeper level, because I've read them all. Highly recommend ! ENJOY !

I have loved this whole series. All of these guys are amazing and I have enjoyed this series immensely. I was so very glad to see a story for Trenton, who you meet in book 5 (Home is Where You Make it). I highly recommend starting with book one in the series as all the characters find their way into each story as new characters are brought in. With that said, my goodness please find an editor. The grammatical errors get worse and worse through the series and it totally distracts from a fantastic story. I understand you are an amateur writer, and for that I graciously applaud you. However, 90% of the errors are easily corrected as it's mostly punctuation and typo's. If anything have another set or two of eyes read prior to publishing.

I have really enjoyed all of these books. However, there continues to be too many grammatical errors. Not as many errors as was in the first few books but still enough to be annoying. For example, the words brake and break were used incorrectly and there were several commas where none were needed which made it a little confusing at times. The author is a great story teller but really needs a better editor.

I really liked this book , it's not easy raising a daughter on your own. But Kade was lucky to have great sister . Kade found love when he lease expected . He also found a reason to come out of the closet at work .

Love your books can't wait for the next one. If I could would pre purchase. Can't wait to see whose story is next.

Just minor mistakes here and there with grammar, spelling etc that are easy fixes. The characters are likeable and I adored Emmi. What a sweetheart.

As always another five star rating. You are now my favorite... I am going to look for more books by you dint stop now....

These guys are so real and genuine that you just cant help to fall in love with them! Great Read
