These are very comprehensive and well organized travel guides. I live in the suburbs of New York and this guide comes in very handy. It will keep you from getting ripped off at the tourist traps and ensure you get a good value for your money. My recent vacation was in Brooklyn and I used this to find great restaurants and places to visit in the neighborhood where we stayed in (Fort Greene) and in Manhattan, all recs were excellent. The recommendations to visit the Brooklyn Promenade, Brooklyn Bridge and Empire State Building (see it at all night) were right on too.

The guide was perfect for a romantic getaway for my wife and I. We made great choices on restaurants with the help of Fodors. I strongly recommend this guide for your visit to New York. We visited all of Manhattan including the Upper West, Upper East, Chelsea, Greenwich Village and Harlem. Fodors recommendations were perfect! The guide and map helped us on the subway. The Brazilian restaurant near Times Square, Luggo Caffe near Times Square, Eataly and the High Line (park) were all highlights.

We purchased this guide prior to a November 2013 trip to NYC. I appreciated restaurant and travel tips most. The map was pretty useless (I ended up purchasing a separate, laminated map). Still, a good investment.

Love the pictures. It is easy to handle, very informative, and inviting. Contains the perfect information for traveling making the experience less stressful.

This is a great book to buy. Excellent color pictures and map. Awesome recommendations of where to stay, restaurants, and things to do! Way better than the first book I purchased.

Way to expensive for what it offers. Few images. Loads of boring plain text, but very few price examples. There should be codes for price categories.

Fodor's is the best Guide you can get. Their suggestions vary by categories and they are very spot on! It helped to create many memories in my life! Thank you for the job well done!

Very detailed book, almost too much, but informative. I always order travel books for big trips, get most out of
