Jerry Robbins, co-founder of the Colonial Radio Theatre on the Air has written and produced over 350 radio plays, including Ticonderoga, Captain Blood, The Legend of Sleepy Hollow, Gettysburg, Treasure Island, Yankee Clipper, Powder River, and Little Big Horn. In 2006 he started a collaboration with legendary author Ray Bradbury, producing Dandelion Wine, followed by Something Wicked This Way Comes, and wrote the script for, and produced The Halloween Tree; all award winning productions that garnered high praise from the master himself. He is currently working on a fourth collaboration with Mr. Bradbury, a radio dramatization of The Martian Chronicles. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

This is volume four of a very entertaining and fun series by Jerry Robbins and the Colonial Radio Theatre. Sometimes it is downright horrifying and then it can be over-the-top and tongue in cheek. Over all I do believe Mr. Price himself would approve. He loved the art of radio drama and was very proud of the work he did in that genre. If you love Vincent Price and his films then get these ASAP as the series has already run and you'd positively hate yourself for missing out!

Great stories! Wish there were more. Would recommend!
