Customer Reviews

These Lonely Planet Food Guides represent excellent value and are very comprehensive as a first introduction to a foreign cuisine. Shame the series is no longer in print.

The best tip we got from this book was for Nancy's in Ardara in County Donegal. The Best. Oysters. EVER.

Very entertaining and informative, this little book was a pleasure to read. Written by Irish folks, it offers witty commentary on the social and cultural traditions of Ireland as well as discussing the wholesome and delicious cuisine. If you've got any interest in Ireland at all, you're sure to enjoy this wonderful guide.

This is a really great book. It covers not only the subject of Irish food, but also gives information on the culture and a brief history of Ireland. The book is packed with information, maps and beautiful photographs. It is a really helpful book for anyone interested in Ireland.
