Customer Reviews

I have traveled the back roads of Tuscany for forty-five years and even written my own book, "The Piero Affair...with side trips," to share with travelers the little known treasures in this special part of the world. But I have found so many new, unexpected destinations in this informative guide book that I have added them to our travel agenda for this October's visit. The book is so well organized which makes your planning an easy pleasure. I love the depth of information. "Off the Beaten Path" shows you the way to unknown gems in small villages throughout the region. Download this book on your iPhone and see a whole new Tuscan world unfold before you as you travel.

This is a very helpful book, loaded with information and illustrations. Tuscany has so much to offer that one must concentrate on an specific area. Tuscany, Off the Beaten Path is an excellent guide to making the most of your visit to this lovely area.
