Customer Reviews

I had already borrowed this book from the library, so I knew it was one I was interested in keeping. It arrived in timely fashion and good condition. I am quite satisfied with this purchase.

Travel Guide or not - the recipes make the book. Healthy and straight forward fare that does not leave a pile of dirty dishes in its wake. Great stuff for those church breakfasts. Highly recommend.

Waking up to breakfast at an Inn always seems to make the food taste better. The aroma of coffee brewing from a distant kitchen and the scent of breakfast baking in the oven seems even more comforting. Bring the experience of these tastes and smells into your own home using celebrated recipes from Michigan's innkeepers. Inn Time for Breakfast...Again innkeepers from across the state share signature recipes they prepare for their guests each day. The variety of recipes includes four seasons of fresh ingredients mixed with basic staples found in any home. These recipes will satisfy everyone from vegetarians to chocolate lovers. With easy preparations, do-ahead tips and healthful substitutions, these elegant but effortless recipes allow the home cook to recreate the experience of a memorable meal at a relaxing bed and breakfast. Use this book to plan your next vacation or weekend retreat. Detailed information about the Inn and surrounding area, phone numbers and rate information are all at your fingertips. Choose a quaint Inn near a fishing village and walk the shores of the Great Lakes, or stay at a restored Queen Anne with antique shops a few steps from the front door. A drawing of each Inn and a complete directory offer visitors as well as cookbook collectors a taste of Michigan's appeal for recreation and relaxation. Book jacket
