The 7th In Kentucky:: The History Of Bluegrass Jury Trials

Synopsis

The colorful history of civil jury verdicts in Kentucky is rich and deep. The 7th in Kentucky (named after the 7th Amendment which grants the right to jury trial) traces this history from the 19th century to the present, describing the odd, the interesting and the celebrated. It traces the first Super Trial of the 1890s to Kentucky's first mass tort litigation in the 1918. It's a must read for any Kentucky trial lawyer.
