Deep West: A Literary Tour Of Wyoming

Synopsis

In original essays commissioned by the Wyoming Center for the Book 19 writers with roots in the state, including Annie Proulx and Robert Roripaugh, tell how that "rough country" has influenced their work. In their essays and accompanying excerpts from their poetry and fiction, these writers bring new understanding to the American West.

Customer Reviews

Deep West is a fine collection of stories, and poetry by Wyoming writers. The writers vary from famous to obscure but the tales they tell are all top notch. I would recommend this book to anyone with an interest in Wyoming or the wonderful American west.
